OCCURRENCE:

JACK STEWART, an officer assigned to the Mexico City station, met in Mexico City with a high officer in the Cuban armed forces who was subsequently to become a CIA asset known as A.M. LASH-1.* STEWART met with A.M. LASH to sound out his views on the Cuban situation. A.M. LASH was in Mexico City to attend a "leftist-sponsored" conference. (78).

The March 1961 meeting was inconclusive, but it led to other meetings out of which Project A.M.LASH was created. A.M. LASH-1 "repeatedly insisted that the essential first step in overthrowing the regime was the elimination of CASTRO himself, which /A.M. LASH-1/ claimed he was prepared to accomplish. He repeatedly requested that we /CIA/ furnish him the special equipment or material needed to do the job." (79).

The IG REPORT concludes that "The Agency offered both direct and indirect support for /A.M. LASH's/ activities" (80). (Information on next card)

5. J. C. KING, Chief, WH Division (He stated in our interview with him that he knew that HARVEY was having meetings with members of the rambling syndicate in 1962.)

6. ~~FRUCE CHEEVER~~, HARVEY's deputy in 1962
~~CHEEVER~~ knows that HARVEY was meeting with gangsters in Reno (sic) in the winter of 1962.)
7. TED SHACKLEY, Chief, JMWAVE (He assisted HARVEY in the delivery of arms and equipment to VARONA in April 1962, but presumably did not know the identities of the recipients nor (con't.))

The April 20 cable repeats that the machine guns should not be passed until further notice, and states that this is due to the unsettled conditions in the Caribbean (post Bay of Pigs) and also asks the station to report immediately whether the 30 caliber carbines have been passed. The WI footnote indicates that the carbines were passed on April 7 of 1961.

Bissell (p. 113) agrees that as of the April 20 cable, the Agency, and in his opinion this was done in connection with State, was telling the station to cool it.

The WI footnote also indicates that the station reported that it was planning to deliver the machine guns on April 22, 1961.

In a memo of June 24, 1966, Director of Security for the CIA, Howard J. Osborn set forth the facts involving the Maheu-Roselli affair. The facts are as follows: In August, 1960, Richard M. Bissell approached Sheffield Edwards to determine if the Office of Security had assets that may assist in a sensitive mission requiring gangster-type action. The mission target was the liquidation of Fidel Castro. Because of its extreme sensitivity, only a small group was made privy to the project. The DCI was briefed and gave his approval. Col. J. C. King, Chief, WH Division was briefed but all details were deliberately concealed from any of the ~~JMWAVE~~ officials. Certain TSD and COMMO personnel participated in the initial planning stages, but were not witting of the purpose of the mission.

SCA discussed various possibilities of accomplishing reconnaissance of Cuba, ranging from very low level coverage by tactical aircraft to high performance aircraft and drones. Overflights and peripheral flights were discussed.

It was agreed that the first priority is one high performance mission in the western part of the island, to be accompanied by all out Elint support. Depending on the results of this, a number of similar searches may be mounted. First mission was later approved by higher authority, but the decision on the second proposition left open.

The entire package was to be discussed at the USIB, and by Chiefs on Wednesday, October 10th.

The 6/10/74 report related a proposal for the assassination of Castro that was made to prominent Cuban exiles. The Mafia appeared to be involved in the scheme." The asking price was $150,000. ~~JOSE MARIO PEPIN BOSCH~~, ~~Preso of Bacardi Rum~~, would contribute $50,000. ~~BOSCH~~ approached the Chief of Station, JMWAVE, and suggested the U.S. government also contribute. OCCURRENCE: Lansdale states, "at 16:50 tonight, Lt. Col. Patchell informed me that Bob Hurwitch of State had just telephoned to report that Radio Havana reported the capture of a CIA sabotage team at the Matahambre mines."

Lansdale was in a staff meeting at the time and he asked Patchell to check the truth of the information with CIA. Patchell informed Lansdale at 1705 that he had talked to Bill Harvey who reported that sabotage teams (of 4 and 2 men each) had departed the US on 17 Oct and gone in on 19 Oct, made an attempt, gone into hiding when the exfiltration point was cut off; they had remained in hiding until 2 Nov, when they were picked up.

Hard intelligence coverage of Cuba has been developed. Fifty-nine controlled agents inside of Cuba exist. Not so successful on infiltrating intelligence reporting in resistance cadre teams. Failure to meet the original schedule of team in-
